I will appreciate it if you will give to the attached release any publicity you possibly can. The course will be conducted by Mrs. Martha Carter who is in the Education Department at the Museum. She received her B.S. degree in Liberal Arts at Skidmore College in 1956 and her M.A. in the History of Art from Western Reserve University in 1957. Mrs. Carter was a graduate assistant in the department in 1956 and 1957 and she also taught high school art in Concord, Massachusetts in 1956 and 1957. She is a Ph.D. candidate at Western Reserve University working in the field of Ancient Art. She joined the Museum staff in 1958.

If you need further information, please call me.

FOR RELEASE    At will
To: Miss Marie Kirkwood, News
    Mr. Paul Metzler, P.D.
    Mr. Paul Mooney, Press

The Museum Workshop, a new experimental offering at the Museum, is a special program for interested high school and college people. It will meet every Saturday afternoon and no special background or training is necessary for those who wish to join. Its aims are to help young people to learn more about the Museum, and to know and enjoy more fully the art of the past and present. It will be especially helpful for those interested in art teaching and the many varied careers connected with museums and the study of art history.

It will include:

1. Gallery tours and discussions of exhibitions in the Museum.
2. Visits to the many interesting departments of the Museum not generally seen by the public, (restoration department, photographic studio, lending collection, library etc.)
3. Talks by staff members on various phases of art.
4. Informal discussions on art and its related fields.
5. Use of slides, books, photographs, films, museum objects, etc. brought in for study.

TIME:      Saturday afternoons from 1:30 to about 3:00 P.M.

PLACE:     Classroom C in north education corridor of Museum

BEGINS:    Saturday, November 7
